Ref: Letter dt. 14.09.2021 from Dr T V Rama Krishna, Coordinator, IQAC

1. General Rules:

- a) Every employee shall, at all times, be devoted to his duty and shall maintain absolute integrity, discipline, impartiality and a sense of belonging. No employee shall behave in a manner unbecoming of an employee of an educational Institution.
- b) Every employee holding a supervisory post shall take all possible steps to ensure the integrity and devotion to duty of all employees under his control.
- c) An employee should at all times be courteous in his dealings with other members of the staff, students and members of the public. His/her behavior should be commendable.
- d) Unless otherwise stated specially in terms of appointment, every employee is a whole-time employee of the college, and may be called upon to perform such duties, as may be assigned to him by competent authority, beyond scheduled working hours and on closed holidays and Sundays.
- e) An employee shall be required to observe the scheduled hours of work, during which he must be present at the place of his duty.
- f) The employee shall not absent himself/herself from his/her duties without prior permission from the head of the Institution. Prior permission of the competent authority is necessary for availing even casual leave or special casual leave. This competent authority however, reserves the right to refuse leave for valid reasons to be recorded in writing. In case of sudden and unexpected sickness or absence on medical grounds, a medical certificate to the satisfaction of the college authorities shall be produced within a week. Employees desiring to avail themselves of leave other than casual leave or special casual leave shall apply for leave before actually proceeding on leave, to the college authorities.
- g) No employee shall leave the station except with the prior permission from competent authority, even during leave or vacation.

- h) Whenever leaving the station, an employee should inform to the Head of the Department to which he/she is attached, providing the address where he/she will be while on leave.
- i) No employee shall, in the performance of his official duties or in the exercise of powers conferred on him, act otherwise than his best judgment except when he was acting under the direction of his official superior, and shall, where he is acting under such direction, obtain the direction, in writing wherever practicable and where it is not practicable to obtain the direction in writing, he shall obtain written confirmation of the direction as soon as possible thereafter.
- j) Explanation: Nothing in the above rule shall be construed as empowering an employee to evade his responsibilities by seeking instructions from or approval of a superior officer under the scheme of distribution of powers and responsibilities.
- k) Conducting or participating or supporting or instigating any faculty staff/students/others directly or indirectly on any religion/ caste/ racial/tribe/sex/untouchability based activities, directly or indirectly on the basis of any religion/ caste/ racial/tribe/sex/ untouchability is strictly prohibited on the part of any employee either in the college premises or elsewhere. Faculty/staff found guilty can be terminated from services of the college.
- l) Criticizing or acting against or not implementing the approved college policy shall be treated as gross misconduct and faculty/staff found guilty can be terminated from services.
- m) The competent authority can assign to any employee any work not directly related to his/her functions and employee cannot refuse to perform such a duty.
- n) The Superior authority can assign to any employee any work from time to time and employee cannot refuse to perform such a duty.
- o) An employee cannot refuse to receive any communication of any type from his/her controlling officer or a competent authority.
- p) An employee shall desist from going on casual leave on a day of heavy work nor apply for leave simply because such leave has to be exhausted. He shall apply for leave in advance except in totally unforeseen circumstances, so as to enable the head of the institution to make substitute arrangements.

2. Taking part in politics and election

- a) No employee shall take part in politics or be associated with any party or organization which takes part in political activity, nor shall subscribe in aid or assist in any manner any political movement or activity.
- b) No employee shall canvass or otherwise interfere or use his influence in connection with or take part in any election to a legislative body or local authority.
- c) Provided that an employee of the college qualified to vote at such election may exercise his right to vote, but where he does so, he shall give no indication of the manner in which he proposes to vote or has voted.

3. Connection with Press or Radio or News Papers or any mass communication media

- a) No employee shall, except with the prior sanction of the competent authority, own wholly or in part or conduct, or participate in the editing or managing of any newspaper or other periodical publications.
- b) No employee shall, except with the prior sanction of the competent authority or any other authority empowered by duties, participate in a radio broadcast or contribute any article or write any letter either anonymously or in his own name or in the name of any other person to any newspaper or periodical.
- c) Note: Subject to the restrictions noted above, members of the staff are at liberty, without any sanction as contemplated in Rule 3.b above, to publish their original scientific works in journals of repute in India and abroad. However, they should indicate their official designations in the articles they want to publish with the prior sanction of the competent authority. Such articles must be strictly conform to purely scientific subjects and should not touch upon administrative matters. They shall be free from all political tinge. Publication of articles relating to India's boundary area and the prohibited tribal population areas are prohibited.

4. Criticism of the Institution

- a) No employee shall, in any radio broadcast or television show, or in any document published anonymously or in his/her own name or through any other person or in any communication to the press or in any public utterance make any statement of fact or opinion about the college.
